George Endicott Appointed to Redmond City Council

The City of Redmond is pleased to announce the appointment of George Endicott, former Redmond Urban Area Planning Commissioner, to the Redmond City Council. The vacancy came after Councilor Paul Hathaway passed away unexpectedly in late October. Councilor Endicott was unanimously selected by the Councilors present at the December 27 City Council Meeting.

A native of Redmond, Councilor Endicott received his Bachelor of Science degree from Oregon State University in Economics. His work experience includes being a management analyst for the Army, an IT systems engineer for the Navy, a program analyst and computer specialist with the Department of Labor, and a computer scientist for the Office of the Secretary of Defense.

The Council feels that Councilor Endicott is well qualified and looks forward to his contributions in 2006.
